PURPOSE

The service provider, responsible for the website, makes this document available to users, to meet its obligations under the Information Society Services and Electronic Commerce Act 34/2002 and inform all users of the website on the conditions for using the site.

All persons visiting this website shall be considered users and undertake to observe and comply strictly with the provisions set out below and any other applicable legal provision.

The service provider reserves the right to modify any of the information on the website, with no obligation to give prior notice or inform the users of those modifications. Publication of the modified text on the service provider's website shall be deemed sufficient notification.

Liability

The service provider is not liable for any of the information published on its website that has been handled or introduced by a third party.

The service provider's website may use cookies (small data files that the server sends to the user's computer) for certain purposes considered essential for the correct viewing and functioning of the site. The cookies used on this website are all temporary. They are used for the sole purpose of making their subsequent transfer more efficient and disappear at the end of the user's session. Cookies are never used to collect personal data.

The client's website may redirect users to the contents of third party websites. The service provider is unable to control the contents posted by third parties on their websites, so it does not accept any liability for those contents. The service provider nevertheless declares that it will promptly remove any contents that may constitute a breach of domestic or international laws or an offence against decency or law and order, immediately removing any link to the site in question and informing the competent authorities of the offensive or unlawful contents.

The service provider is not liable for the information and contents stored, inter alia, in forums, chats, blogs, comments, social networks or any other media allowing third parties to publish contents independently on the service provider's website. This notwithstanding, in pursuance of sections 11 and 16 of the Information Society Services and Electronic Commerce Act, the service provider is at the disposal of all users, authorities and security forces and will collaborate actively in the removal or blocking, as the case may be, of all and any contents that may constitute a breach of domestic or international laws or third-party rights, or an offence against decency, law and order. Should any user consider that any of the contents on this website may fall into this classification, kindly notify the website administrator immediately.

This website has been checked and tested to ensure its correct functioning. In principle, its correct functioning can be guaranteed 365 days a year, 24 hours a day, except during announced maintenance. However, certain programming errors, causes of force majeure, natural disasters, strikes or similar circumstances may make it impossible to access the website from time to time.

Personal data protection

The service provider is strongly committed to compliance with the Spanish personal data protection laws and guarantees fulfilment of all its obligations thereunder, as well as implementation of the security measures established in section 9 of the Personal Data Protection Act 15/1999 and corresponding statutory provisions.

The service provider puts at users' disposal its Privacy Policy, informing users on the following aspects:

- Details of the data processor
- Data processed
- File in which the data are stored
- Purpose of processing
- Mandatory or voluntary provision and the consequences of not providing the data
- Users' rights and how to exercise them

Intellectual and industrial property

The website, including but not limited to its programming, edition, compilation and other elements necessary for its correct functioning, designs, logotypes, text and/or images are owned by or licensed to the service provider, or the service provider has been expressly authorised to use them. All the contents of the website are duly protected by the intellectual and industrial property laws and registered in the corresponding public registers.

Regardless of the purpose for which they are intended, the service provider's prior, written authorisation is required for any full or partial reproduction, use, exploitation, distribution and marketing of the foregoing. Any use not previously authorised by the service provider shall be considered a serious infringement of the author's intellectual or industrial property rights.

Any third-party designs, logotypes, text and/or images that may appear on this website belong to their respective proprietors, who are responsible for any disputes that may arise in connection therewith. The service provider expressly authorises third parties to provide direct links to specific contents of its websites, for which purpose they should redirect to the service provider's main website.

The service provider recognises the industrial and intellectual property rights of the respective proprietors and the mere mention or appearance of any third-party designs, logotypes, text and/or images does not imply any responsibility or rights of the service provider thereover, or any support, sponsorship or recommendation thereof.

Any comments regarding possible infringements of intellectual or industrial property rights or any of the contents of the website may be sent to: dac@bullpadel.com

Applicable law and jurisdiction

The parties expressly submit to Spanish law to solve any disputes or issues arising from or in connection with this website or the activities performed through it, and agree that the courts and tribunals of Madrid shall have jurisdiction for such disputes.
